ImmunEasy technology is covered by U.S. Patents 6,194,388 and 6,207,646 exclusively licensed by Coley Pharmaceutical Group, Inc.

The PCR process is covered by U.S. Patents 4,683,195 and 4,683,202 and foreign equivalents owned by Hoffmann-La Roche AG.

The SAGE process is covered by U.S. Patent 5,695,937 owned by Genzyme Molecular Oncology.

TAGZyme technology is licensed under U.S. Patent No. 5,691,169, U.S. Patent No. 5,783, 413, and E.U. Patent No. 00759931B1.

Hoffmann-La Roche owns patents and patent applications pertaining to the application of Ni-NTA resin (Patent series: RAN 4100/63: USP 4.877.830, USP 5.047.513, EP 253 303 B1), and to 6xHis-coding vectors and His-labeled proteins (Patent series: USP 5.284.933, USP 5.130.663, EP 282 042 B1). All purification of recombinant proteins by Ni-NTA chromatography for commercial purposes, and the commercial use of proteins so purified, require a license from Hoffmann-La Roche.

The Black Hole Quenchers and BHQ dyes were developed by and licensed from Biosearch Technologies, Novato, CA. These products are sold exclusively for R&D use by the purchaser. They may not be used for clinical or diagnostic purposes and they may not be re-sold, distributed or re-packaged. Operon's Molecular Beacons are licensed under patents owned by The Public Health Research Institute of the City of New York, Inc. and come with licensed rights for use only in the purchaser's research and development activities.

Purchase of QuantiTect Probe Kits does not provide a license to use patented technology covered by U.S. Patents 5,210,015, 5,487,972, and 5,538,848.

siRNA technology licensed to QIAGEN is covered by various patent applications, owned by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, MA, USA and others.

Notice to Users of QIAamp Kits and the BioRobot 9604

QIAamp Kits are intended as general-purpose devices, and the BioRobot 9604 is intended as a microtiter diluting and dispensing device. No claim or representation is intended for their use to identify any specific organism or for clinical use (diagnostic, prognostic, therapeutic, or blood banking). It is the user's responsibility to validate the performance of QIAamp Kits and the BioRobot 9604 for any particular use, since their performance characteristics have not been validated for any specific organism. QIAamp Kits and the BioRobot 9604 may be used in clinical diagnostic laboratory systems after the laboratory has validated their complete system as required by CLIA '88 regulations in the U.S. or equivalents in other countries.

Notice to Purchasers of QIAGEN products for PCR containing Taq DNA Polymerase, HotStarTaq DNA Polymerase, or ProofStart DNA Polymerase: Limited License

A license under U.S. Patents 4,683,202, 4,683,195, and 4,965,188 or their foreign counterparts, owned by Roche Molecular Systems, Inc. and F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd ("Roche"), has an up-front fee component and a running-royalty component. The purchase price of this product includes limited, nontransferable rights under the running-royalty component to use only this amount of the product to practice the Polymerase Chain Reaction ("PCR") and related processes described in said patents solely for the research and development activities of the purchaser when this product is used in conjunction with a thermal cycler whose use is covered by the up-front fee component. Rights to the up-front fee component must be obtained by the end user in order to have a complete license. These rights under the up-front fee component may be purchased from Applied Biosystems or obtained by purchasing an Authorized Thermal Cycler. No right to perform or offer commercial services of any kind using PCR, including without limitation reporting the results of purchaser's activities for a fee or other commercial consideration, is hereby granted by implication or estoppel. Further information on purchasing licenses to practice the PCR Process may be obtained by contacting the Director of Licensing at Applied Biosystems, 850 Lincoln Center Drive, Foster City, California 94404 or the Licensing Department at Roche Molecular Systems, Inc., 1145 Atlantic Avenue, Alameda, California 94501.
